

Clearfield Warming Up To The Importance Of Bond Buying

Fine Interest Shown At Meeting Held Last Night At The High School Auditorium

SUBSCRIPTIONS COME FASTER

Clearfielders are beginning to buy Liberty Bonds in a liberal manner. As has always been the case, when a real crisis faces the nation, when a real need is brought to the attention of our people, they dig down in their pockets and without reluctance give for whatever the need might be.

On the other hand it must be conceded that Clearfielders must be shown. They do not part with their money easily. In point of population we have less "shark bait" per thousand than any other city. Our people are thrifty, crafty and canny. They can detect frauds and few are perpetrated upon the community.

Our people have become aroused. There is a determination to see this war through that was not in evidence two weeks ago. The work of the various committees charged with the duty of arousing the people has been hard but they have not worked in vain.

Everybody is reading Liberty Loan dope now. They are scanning the advertisements for more information. They seek to know how they can do their utmost.

In spite of the most inclement weather there was an excellent attendance at the Liberty Rally at the High School Auditorium last night. The seats were not all full but the atmosphere was full of patriotic zeal and fervor.

The address of Hon. Lincoln E. Eyre was listened to with the best of attention and several times he was interrupted with long and loud applause as he drove some strong points home with logical arguments.

Preceding the address Mr. W. I. Betts, by way of introduction read a newspaper clipping telling of the success of the Seventh War Loan and a telegram from the Emperor congratulating his aides on their masterful handling of the bond issue. A strong climax was reached when Mr. Betts finished reading the telegram, quickly tore it to pieces, stamped upon it and shot through his teeth the now famous phrase "a mere scrap of paper, we will do with it as the Kaiser did with the Belgium treaty."

Capt. A. H. Woodward and Alex. Patterson, Esq., followed Mr. Eyre. Mr. Patterson introduced some comedy into the meeting to relieve the tension by referring in light vein to Philadelphia and her politics. In conclusion he made some telling points alluding to America placing "spirit above the material things of life and prophesying that the spiritual side would be the winner. Capt. Woodward made one of his characteristic strong appeals to the manhood of the nation.

Soloists report today that they are taking larger subscriptions every day and if they keep increasing at the present rate there will be no doubt of the success of the loan in Clearfield. Now this is just the point we want to make. We must keep them increasing every day until the end of the week.

There was joy in camp today when it became known that the Harrison-Walker bond subscription will be $200,000 for the Clearfield-Philaburg district instead of $100,000 as published. This amount will be invested to the credit of this district over and above whatever amount is taken by the employees through that company.

The whole county is becoming aroused. Meetings are being held every day and evening in different parts of the county. Night before last a fine meeting was held at Glen Riche, where W. O. Batcheler was the chairman. Speakers were Messrs. Harrison-Walker, Glen Richey, accompanied with subscriptions of $6000 and more will be coming in before the campaign closes on Saturday night. The people of Glen Richey are to be congratulated on the good showing made by them. In addition to getting out the coal which Uncle Sam says so much needed they are putting their savings back into a loan for the Government.

Today noon there was a meeting at the Harrison-Walker works with music by the Italian Band. The meeting was addressed by Rev. W. W. Hartman and other local workers. The people of Clearfield owe a good Newspapers received here declared that the people's response to the government's appeal for money is an evidence of continued unity between the Kaiser and his people and the unswerving determination of all classes to bring the war to a victorious conclusion. In the seven war loans to date Germany has raised approximately $18,134,000,000.

Michaelis Said To Have Resigned His Post

New Chancellor Has Been Growing Very Unpopular Since Appointed

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24.—A wireless press message received today from Amsterdam has asserted that Chancellor Michaelis "had placed his portfolio in the Kaiser's hands."

The wireless press message was not confirmed from any other source. The opposition to Chancellor Michaelis has been growing steadily during recent months in Germany. It started with the efforts of the majority Socialists to obtain some definite statement of Germany's war aims and grew more formidable when Michaelis evaded and ducked the issue. It reached a crisis when Michaelis and Admiral Von Capelle, Minister of Marines, broke the news of the German naval mutiny in what Socialists saw was a trick to gain Junkerite support.

DENIED THAT WILSON PLOT HAS BEEN FOUND BY SLEUTHS

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Information disclosed by government agents concerning isolated arrests at different points recently for the writing of threatening letters to President Wilson gave rise today to a widely-circulated story of a conspiracy against the President. It was officially stated that there was no warrant for such a report.

BY GRAPEVINE GROUNDLESS

TEUTON COUNTER ATTACKS FRUITLESS

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24.—Violent German counter attacks against newly won British and French positions around Hougoult have been fruitless, Field Marshal Haig reported today. Vigorous counter blows were launched by the enemy at the point of juncture between the British and French. They were completely repulsed. "Since Monday" Haig concluded "seven counter attacks have been made and none of them materially gained for the enemy."

dea to the Italian Band for their cooperation in the matter of patriotic demonstrations.

Tonight Madera will stage a demonstration on a most elaborate scale. We do not have a program but we are informed that thousands are expected to hear the doctrine of Liberty for all men preached there tonight.

Tomorrow night there will be meetings at both Boardman and Chester Hill. Speakers from Clearfield will be present at both meetings.

Harrisburg, Oct. 24.—Scarcely a community in the state—very likely none at all—is failing to take formal notice of Liberty Day today. After the governor last week followed the example of President Wilson and formally proclaimed today as Liberty Day, practically every mayor, burgess and similar official in the state accepted the governor's invitation to do the same.

A result is that the entire Keystone is swinging together today in one grand rally to drive the state's Liberty Bond quota "over the top."

In many communities the afternoon is devoted to day with public meetings or other demonstrations, from place of customary activities.

Fred R. Bartles Gets Another Promotion

Popular Son-in-Law of Senator McQuown is Making Good

The many Clearfield friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Bartles will be pleased to learn that Mr. Bartles has received another fine promotion from the Northern Pacific Railroad company with which concern he has been connected for a number of years.

Mr. Bartles went to the northwest from Clearfield where he had been a supervisor on the Pennsylvania Division for several years. Since going west he has steadily risen in the railroad world and for the past five or six years has been a Division Superintendent, with headquarters at Staples, Minn.

Last week some changes were made in the officials of the Northern Pacific, due to the fact that a number of their men had been selected for service with the Emerson Commission in Russia and in consequence thereof Mr. Bartles was promoted to the position of Supt. of the Rocky Mountain Division and will hereafter be located at Missoula, Montana.

The change was effective at once and he has already assumed his new duties.

In speaking of the change the Staples News says: "While Mr. Bartles has made a large circle of friends since coming here, all of whom dislike very much to see him go away and take his excellent family from the city, the change is in the nature of a promotion that none would like to see Mr. Bartles pass up."

Mrs. Bartles is the daughter of Senator and Mrs. M. L. McQuown.

THIS IS LIBERTY DAY

Washington, Oct. 24.—This is Liberty Day—on which the government looks to the nation to swell enormously the Liberty Loan. With the one-half way mark reached in the campaign for the five billion dollars, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers are urgently preaching the doctrine of how to make Democracy safe through heavy purchase of Liberty Bonds.

The United Press idea of a Liberty Bond for a Christmas present was one of the most potential appeals with the endorsement of high government officials and ranking industrial and business men. Lord Reading and Lord G. Johnson of England, heads of the British financial mission in this country, today also gave approval to the Yuletide Liberty Bond. Lord Reading said through the United Press "a triumph over subscription of this Liberty Loan will be the best answer to the Kaiser's demand of how the United States can wage effective war. A Christmas gift of a Liberty Bond will be a help not only to the recipient but to the shell-racked soldiers in the trenches."

MORE PLOT RECORDS UNCOVERED

New York, Oct. 24.—Count von Bernstorff's secret representative in America and all his records and papers completed part of a rich haul announced by Secret Service men today. The representative was Baron von Recklinghausen. His papers, it was hinted, gave a complete record of Germany's part in the Irish rebellion, plans for a new revolution and shows the source of the great fund of German propaganda money. The men are under close scrutiny.

In addition to Recklinghausen the American Secret Service men arrested "General" Liam Mellows, one of the leaders of the Irish rebellion in 1916 and his trip to the British authorities aimed in the taking the custody at Halifax, Nova Scotia. Dr. Patrick McCarton, another Sinn Féin leader. The arrest with full evidence taken in connection therewith drew the attention of the American Secret Service to the fact that the German Secret Service has been planning the formation of a plan for another Dublin Sinn Féin rebellion next Easter.

Osceola People Buying Liberty Bonds Fine

Joined With Phillipsburg to Make Their Demonstration Success

Osceola Mills, Oct. 24.—The drive for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in this district is being pushed with vigor. Members of the Presbyterian Sunday school held a Liberty Social in the church Friday evening at which a good sum was raised which will be invested in bonds. The rally in the Fireman's Arcade on Saturday evening was largely attended. A. H. Woodward and Mr. Betts of Clearfield addressed the audience. On Monday evening many of our Citizens, members of the Fire Company and I. O. O. F. together with two bands went to Phillipsburg to join in the parade and rally at that place. The Women Workers are making a thorough canvass and last evening reported having sold over $25,000.00 dollars worth in this district.

Rev. S. T. Lewis delivered an eloquent sermon on the Bond issue on Sabbath evening. The Knights of the Golden Eagle and I. O. O. F. lodges are among the organizations which have subscribed for bonds.

Mrs. C. W. Bickford, who was run down by some reckless automobile drivers while walking along the State road some days ago is recovering from her injuries.

Firemen Called To Fight Fire At Home

Osceola Fireman's Hall Damaged To The Extent of $1000 By Fire

The borough dials at Osceola Mills have to get their fire ladders more and better facilities or equipment for fire fighting or the old Fire Men will eat or burn them right up.

Last week a disastrous fire swept the Stine foundry at Osceola and entailed a loss aggregating $150,000. The firemen were handicapped by a poor water supply altho with Moshannon creek paralleling the plant a five or six thousand dollar pumping engine at the right time would have saved this huge destruction of property.

Not satisfied with getting away with his demolishing of the foundry "Old Burnusky" that he would take further liberties with the fire boys and this time add insult to injury by burning up their own property. You may not have known it before, but the Osceola firemen are a frugal lot and by careful business management built and paid for their own hall or building and out of it a charity of their hear supply a council room rent free to the borough council. You can imagine how mad it made Chief McCann, Arthur Baird, P. M. Murray and other guiding spirits in the fire fighting forces when fire broke out right in their own building at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The "wild cat" alarm was destroyed with the foundry and this also operated to the disadvantage of the firemen, but they jumped right in with the tools they had and saved the building from destruction after a strenuous battle, although the damage will amount to $1,000.

The loss is fortunately fully covered by insurance. Meanwhile the townspeople are beginning to waken up to the fact that five or ten thousand dollars spent for needed fire equipment may save ten times its cost in its first fire service.

ENLARGING GARAGE

The Clearfield Central Garage company are enlarging the garage recently erected in the alley back of the Dining Hotel. When this company conceived the idea of building a garage in that location failure was first predicted for the project. The garage was not completed because it was proven to small and it was a common sight to see several cars waiting in line outside. The addition now being erected is almost as large as the original building, not even at that will be likely be large enough to accommodate their trade next spring.

P. S. COMMISSION BOARD MUST RULE ON NEW STATION

In No Other Way Will Clearfield Get A New Station Until After The War Has Terminated

N. Y. C. OFFICIALS HERE

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Oct. 23.—The Public Service Commission has referred to its Bureau of Engineering the matter of alleged inadequate train service in Clearfield county by the New York Central railroad, and also the complaint that station facilities are inadequate.

Chairman Ainey, of the commission, recently took testimony in these two cases at a special hearing in Clearfield. No further action can be taken until the bureau reports back to the commission.

Superintendent F. E. McCormick, General Manager Frupp and General Superintendent Dinan, of the New York Central lines were in Clearfield yesterday and while here paid a visit to the Progress office.

Their attitude toward the matter of a new station and toward restoration of the River line service is such that nothing except a ruling of the Public Service Commission will bring about the results needed by this community. After recounting the many reasons for the change on the River line and repeating the claim that only the war holds up the construction of the new station they stated that the railroad did not have the revenue to build the station at this time.

BUYS A. L. COLE HOME

One of the handsomest, most desirable homes in Clearfield—the town of fine homes—changed hands yesterday when Dr. F. D. Leipold closed the deal whereby he became the owner of the A. L. Cole mansion on the West Side of the river in the Second Ward.

The property was remodeled and generally overhauled and repaired by the late A. L. Cole, Esq., some two years ago and is in fine shape. It faces the river and occupies the entire half block from West Walnut street up to the H. A. Kennedy property line.

Possession will be given by Mrs. Cole and family the coming week and it is Dr. Leipold's intention to move into the same at once.

LIKE DAVY CROCKETT'S COON

Hon. F. G. Harris was out on the mountains gunning for pheasants yesterday and during his trip through the woods chased up two fine big buck deer. One was encountered along the Seaford road, while the other fellow dodged under the wire just back of Crystal Springs Camp. Mr. Harris is one of our most successful deer hunters and has been getting "his deer" each year for many years back. The appearance of the old bucks yesterday is thought to have been due to the fact that when they saw Harris approaching with his gun on his shoulder they figured the deer season was at hand and as he was sure to get one of them anyhow they would offer themselves as a sacrifice and have the agony over with.

SEVEN INCHES OF SNOW AT CLYMER

Reports were received from Clymer, Pa., this morning to the effect that that section of Indiana county was resting under a blanket of snow seven inches thick as the result of a furious snow storm which swept that section early today.

Word from the mountains north of town is that there are four or five inches of snow out there.

BOARD PASSED ON EXEMPT CLAIMS

No Shipment of Men To Camp Lee Until Further Notice Despite Previous Announcement

NO FINAL CALL FOR NEGROES

The local boys who are scheduled to go to Camp Lee with the next contingent of soldiers of liberty from District No. 1 will be given a few more days at home, instead of being called upon to leave for the trip on Friday as was published yesterday unofficially.

It seems the adjutant general's office was under the impression that Clearfield county was a territory supplying Camp Meade, as they stated to the local boys they could expect a call for their percent of their quota between these dates.

Camp Meade is behind in its quota due to the unfinished condition of the camp when the first call for men was issued and the thirty per cent. spoken of will be taken from the sections supplying their quota.

The following letter explains the case:

October 23, 1917
Local Board for Division No. 1,
Clearfield, Pa.
Gentlemen:

Reference to our conversation this morning about our next shipment of white men. I told you, over the phone, that there was a telegram sent out for shipment of 30 per cent. or about November 2nd. At the time, I thought you shipped to Camp Meade, but I later found out, when I called upon the Telegraph Office to see why they had not sent you a message, that your name was not on the list I had given them. I looked further into the matter and found that you shipped to Camp Lee and that there has been no word sent out for men to be shipped to Camp Lee.

Yours very truly,
The Adjutant General,
By FRANK G. SWEENEY
Colonel

No call has been issued for any additional white men for Camp Lee and none is anticipated now for some little time yet.

The official order for entrainment of the colored soldiers from District No. 1 has not been issued yet and they will not be called now before the first of next week.

The local board expects to make the district board at Erie pass upon all pending claims appealed from their finding before orders are received for another contingent in order that the previous calls may all be cleaned up before the twenty-four men already certified from the last examination are called for service.

The local board at a short session this morning passed upon the following claims for exemption:

Disallowed
James A. Park, Winburne.
Harry Carlisle Frank, Clearfield.
Wm. Theo. Milliron, Curwensville.
Samuel T. McDowell, Hawk Run.
Allowed

Allen G. McCracken, Hyde, Pa., wife and five children.
Daniel Verdon Maines, Woodland, wife and two children.
Ralph Charles Shimmel, Wallacetown, wife and one child.

Ernest S. Jury, Bigler, wife and two children.

Russell E. Shaw, Clearfield, wife and three children.

Joseph David Conrad, Woodland, wife and three children.

Boyd Clifford Dickey, dependant mother and six brother and sisters.

John R. Vashinder, Curwensville, until discharged from reformation.

WE SIDE TRACKED THEM

The Lock Haven Express Tuesday evening said:—

"The Lock Haven High school team is on its way to the scholastic championship of Central Pennsylvania. The games deserve better patronage from the people of this city, as the team is making a name for this city on the foot ball field and is in every way worthy of our encouragement and support."

The "champions" ran into a switch at Clearfield Saturday. They were shunted into the discards to 6.

Joined With Philipsburg to Make Their Demonstration Success

Osceola Mills, Oct. 24.—The drive for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in this district is being pushed with vigor. Members of the Presbyterian Sunday school held a Liberty Social in the church Friday evening at which a good sum was raised which will be invested in bonds. The rally in the Fireman's Arcade on Saturday evening was largely attended. A. H. Woodward and Mr. Betts of Clearfield addressed the audience. On Monday evening many of our citizens, members of the Fire Company and I. O. O. F. together with two bands went to Philipsburg to join in the parade and rally at that place. The Women Workers are making a thorough canvass and last evening reported having sold over $25,000.00 dollars worth in this district. Rev. S. T. Lewis delivered an eloquent sermon on the Bond issue on Sabbath evening. The Knights of the Golden Eagle and I. O. O. F. lodges are among the organizations which have subscribed for bonds.

Mrs. C. W. Bickford, who was run down by some reckless automobile drivers while walking along the State road some days ago is recovering from her injuries.

Firemen Called To Fight Fire At Home

Osceola Fireman's Hall Damaged To The Extent of $1000 By Fire

The borough dads at Osceola Mills have to get their fire ladders more and better facilities or equipment for fire fighting or the old Fire Fend will eat or burn them right up.

Last week a disastrous fire swept the Stine foundry at Osceola and entailed a loss aggregating $150,000. The firemen were handicapped by a poor water supply altho with Moshannon creek paralleling the plant a five or six thousand dollar pumping engine at the right time would have saved this huge destruction of property.

Not satisfied with getting away with his demolishing of the foundry "Old Burnhumpy" that he would take further liberties with the fire boys and this time add insult to injury by burning up their own property. You may not have known it before, but the Osceola firemen are a frugal lot and by careful business management built and paid for their own hall or building out of the charity of their hearth. They had a council room rent free to the borough council. You can imagine how mad it made Chief McCann, Arthur Barrd, P. M. Murray and other guiding spirits in the fire fighting forces when fire broke out right in their own building at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The "wild cat" alarm was destroyed with the foundry and this also operated to the disadvantage of the firemen, but they jumped right in with the tools they had and saved the building from destruction after a strenuous battle, although the damage will amount to $1,000.

The loss is fortunately fully covered by insurance. Meanwhile the townspeople are beginning to waken up to the fact that five or ten thousand dollars spent for needed fire equipment now may save ten times its cost in its first fire service.

ENLARGING GARAGE

The Clearfield Central Garage company are enlarging the garage recently erected in the alley back of the Dunsmuir Hotel. When this company conceived the idea of building a garage in that location failure was freely predicted for the project. The garage was not completed before it was proven to small and it was a common sight to see several cars waiting in line outside. The addition now being erected is almost as large as the original building, but even at that will not likely be large enough to accommodate their trade next spring.

P. S. COMMISSION MUST RULE ON NEW STATION

In No Other Way Will Clearfield Get A New Station Until After The War Has Terminated

N. Y. C. OFFICIALS HERE

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Oct. 23.—The Public Service Commission has referred to its Bureau of Engineering the matter of alleged inadequate train service in Clearfield county by the New York Central railroad, and also the complaint that station facilities are inadequate.

Chairman Ainey, of the commission, recently took testimony in these two cases at a special hearing in Clearfield. No further action can be taken until the bureau reports back to the commission.

Superintendent F. E. McCormick, General Manager Frupp and General Superintendent Dinan, of the New York Central lines were in Clearfield yesterday and while here paid a visit to the Progress office.

Their attitude toward the matter of a new station and toward restoration of the River line service is such that nothing except a ruling of the Public Service Commission will bring about the results needed by this community. After recounting the many reasons for the change on the River line and repeating the claim that only the war holds up the construction of the new station they stated that the railroad did not have the revenue to build the station at this time.

The Progress is fully aware of the fact that it is unfortunate that the delinquency of the New York Central with regard to station facilities makes it necessary to force the issue under present conditions but in as much as a necessity exists it must be taken care of regardless of war conditions. We have always inclined to the view that Clearfield had the new station coming to it years ago and if the New York Central had given the town the consideration it deserved the station would today have been built and Clearfield would have had greater pride in the vast railroad system which enters her city limits.

BUYS A. L. COLE HOME

One of the handsomest, most desirable homes in Clearfield—the town of fine homes—changed hands yesterday when Dr. F. D. Leipold closed the deal whereby he became the owner of the A. L. Cole mansion on the West Side of the river in the Second Ward.

The property was remodeled and generally overhauled and repaired by the late A. L. Cole, Esq., some two years ago and is in fine shape. It faces the river and occupies the entire half block from West Walnut street up to the H. A. Kennedy property line.

Possession will be given by Mrs. Cole and family the coming week and it is Dr. Leipold's intention to move into the same at once.

LIKE DAVY CROCKETT'S COON

Hon. F. G. Harris was out on the mountains gunning for pheasants yesterday and during his trip through the woods chased up two fine big buck deer. One was encountered along the Scotch road, while the other fellow dodged under the wire just back of Crystal Springs Camp. Mr. Harris is one of our most successful deer hunters and has been getting "his deer" each year for many years back. The appearance of the old bucks yesterday is thought to have been due to the fact that when they saw Harris approaching with his gun on his shoulder they figured the deer season was at hand and as he was sure to get one of them anyhow they would offer themselves as a sacrifice and have the agony over with.

SEVEN INCHES OF SNOW AT CLYMER

Reports were received from Clymer, Pa. this morning to the effect that that section of Indiana county was resting under a blanket of snow seven inches thick as the result of a furious snow storm which swept that section early today.

Word from the mountains north of town is that there are four or five inches of snow out there.

BOARD PASSES ON EXEMPT CLAIMS TO CAMP LEE

NO FINAL CALL FOR NEGROES

The local boys who are scheduled to go to Camp Lee with the next contingent of soldiers of liberty from District No. 1 will be given a few more days at home, instead of being called upon to leave for the training camp some time between next Tuesday and Friday as was published yesterday unofficially.

It seems the adjutant general's office was under the impression that Clearfield county was in the territory supplying Camp Meade, when they stated to the local board that they could expect a call for thirty per cent. of their quota between those dates.

Camp Meade is behind in its quota due to the unfinished condition of the camp when the first call for men was issued and the thirty per cent. spoken of will be taken from the sections supplying their quota.

The following letter explains the case:

October 23, 1917

Local Board for Division No. 1, Clearfield, Pa.

Gentlemen:

Reference to our conversation this morning about our next shipment of white men. I told you, over the phone, that there was a telegram out for shipment of 30 per cent. or about November 2nd. At the time, I thought you shipped to Camp Meade, but I later found out, when I called up the Telegraph Office to see why they had not sent you a message, that your name was not on the list I had given them. I looked further into the matter and found that you shipped to Camp Lee and that has been no word sent out for men to be shipped to Camp Lee.

Yours very truly,
The Adjutant General,
By FRANK G. SWEENEY
Colonel

No call has been issued for any additional white men for Camp Lee and none is anticipated now for some little time yet.

The official order for entrainment of the colored soldiers from District No. 1 has not been issued yet and they will not be called now before the first of next week.

The local board expects to make the district board at Erie pass upon all pending claims appealed from their finding before orders are rectified for another contingent in order that the previous calls may all be cleaned up before the twenty-four men already certified from the last examination are called for service.

The local board at a short session this morning passed upon the following claims for exemption:

Disallowed

James A. Park, Winburne.
Harry Carlisle Frank, Clearfield.
Wm. Theo. Milliron, Curwensville.
Samuel T. McDowell, Hawk Run.

Allowed

Allen Q. McCracken, Hyde, Pa., wife and five children.

Daniel Verdon Maines, Woodland, wife and two children.

Ralph Charles Shimmel, Wallacetown, wife and one child.

Ernest S. Jury, Bigler, wife and two children.

Russell E. Shaw, Clearfield, wife and three children.

Joseph David Conrad, Woodland, wife and three children.

Boyd Clifford Dickey, dependent mother and six brother and sisters.

John R. Vashinder, Curwensville, until discharged from reformatory.

WE SIDE TRACKED THEM

"The Lock Haven High school team is on its way to the scholastic championship of Central Pennsylvania. The games deserve better patronage from the people of this city, as the team is making a name for this city on the foot ball field and is in every way worthy of our encouragement and support."

The "champions" ran into a switch at Clearfield Saturday. They were shunted into the discards to 6.

EDITORIAL*"LIBERTY DAY"

This is Liberty Day. There isn't any word in the language so distinctively American in its meaning to us or so inspiring to Americans as such. The United States is a Christian nation and its liberty is based on the principle of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. We recognize every man's right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

When this war began we were neutral. If the nations across the sea wanted to cut each others' throats, it was none of our funeral. But this didn't last long. The cry of bleeding Belgium came to us. The starving Armenians wailed and we heard them. The Serbians were homeless and distressed and we helped them, perhaps not so generously as we might have done, but still more so than any other nation. Our statesmen realized sooner than the mass of the people that the war was one of crude brute force against all the principles of individual and national freedom; that the success of the Teutons would mean the enslavement of the human race. No objection was made to the shipments of munitions to the Entente. Had embargo not been put on these supplies, had money been impossible to obtain in this country, the war would have been over ere this and the world dominion dream of the kaiser been far on its way toward fulfillment.

But the kaiser showed his cloven foot on this side the Atlantic just a little too soon. When he struck at the freedom of the seas; when his under sea monsters made it necessary for Americans to stay at home or take their lives in their hands, a liberty loving people couldn't keep hands off any longer. So our men are gone and our dollars are rapidly making a difference in conditions in the war zone. The first Liberty Loan is a matter of history and the second one will be. The first one went slowly until the wind up; then subscriptions came in with so great a rush that it was days before the count could be completed.

It is hoped that the wind up of the second campaign will be even greater. Government officials are admittedly worried at the slowness of the returns. Some of the friends of the loan have been optimistic of final subscriptions. Some of its enemies are taking advantage of this to discourage hard work as unnecessary. But Liberty Day is badly needed. There cannot be too much enthusiasm, too much cheering for Old Glory, too many parades or patriotic speech making. The echo of the ringing of the Liberty Bell should be heard in every city, town and village in the land. The farmer, whom the government has assured fair prices for their crops, should lead their savings in their country's hour of need. Everybody who has the price of a Liberty Bond now or who can raise it on the banker's plan of $5 a month should celebrate Liberty Day by obtaining the right to wear one of the buttons announcing that the wearer owns a Liberty Bond. We have our liberty. Let's help our government to preserve it and let's be unselfish enough to help share it with the whole world.

Clearfield Warming Up To The Importance Of Bond Buying

SUBSCRIPTIONS COME FASTER

Clearfielders are beginning to buy Liberty Bonds in a liberal manner. As has always been the case, when a real crisis faces the nation, when a real need is brought to the attention of our people, they dig down in their pockets and without reluctance give for whatever the need might be.

On the other hand it must be conceded that Clearfielders must be shown. They do not part with their money easily. In point of population we have less "shark bait" per thousand than any other city. Our people are thrifty, crafty and canny. They can detect frauds and few are perpetrated upon the community.

Our people have become aroused. There is a determination to see this war through that was not in evidence two weeks ago. The work of the various committees charged with the duty of arousing the people has been hard but they have not worked in vain.

Everybody is reading Liberty Loan dope now. They are scanning the advertisements for more information. They seek to know how they can do their utmost.

In spite of the most inclement weather there was an excellent attendance at the Liberty Rally at the High School Auditorium last night. The seats were not all full but the atmosphere was full of patriotic zeal and fervor.

The address of Hon. Lincoln E. Eyre was listened to with the best of attention and several times he was interrupted with long and loud applause as he drove some strong points home with logical arguments.

Preceding the address Mr. W. I. Betts, by way of introduction read a newspaper clipping telling of the success of the Seventh War Loan and a telegram from the Emperor congratulating his aides on their masterful handling of the bond issue. A strong climax was reached when Mr. Betts finished reading the telegram, quickly tore it to pieces, stamped upon it and shot through his teeth the now famous phrase "a mere scrap of paper, we will do with it as the Kaiser did with the Belgium treaty."

Capt. A. H. Woodward and Alex. Patterson, Esq., followed Mr. Eyre. Mr. Patterson introduced some comedy into the meeting to relieve the tension by referring in light vein to Philadelphia and her politics. In conclusion he made some telling points alluding to America placing "spirit above the material things of life and prophesying that the spiritual side would be the winner. Capt. Woodward made one of his characteristic strong appeals to the manhood of the nation.

Soloists report today that they are taking larger subscriptions every day and if they keep increasing at the present rate there will be no doubt of the success of the loan in Clearfield. Now this is just the point we want to make. We must keep them increasing every day until the end of the week.

There was joy in camp today when it became known that the Harbison-Walker bond subscription will be $200,000 for the Clearfield-Philaburg district instead of $100,000 as published. This amount will be invested to the credit of this district over and above whatever amount is taken by the employees through that company.

The whole county is becoming aroused. Meetings are being held every day and evening in different parts of the county. Night before last a fine meeting was held at Glen Richey, where W. O. Batcheler was the chairman. Speakers were Messrs. from Clearfield. Glen Richey came forth with subscriptions of $6000 and more will be coming in before the campaign closes on Saturday night. The people of Glen Richey are to be congratulated on the good showing made by them. In addition to getting out the coal which Uncle Sam says so much needed they are putting their savings back into a loan for the Government.

Today noon there was a meeting at the Harbison-Walker works with music by the Italian Band. The meeting was addressed by Rev. W. W. Hartman and other local workers. The people of Clearfield owe a good

Amsterdam, Oct. 24—Germany is exalted over her success in the seventh war loan which totals three and a third billion dollars. Newspapers received here declared that the people's response to the government's appeal for money is an evidence of continued unity between the Kaiser and his people and the unswerving determination of all classes to bring the war to a victorious conclusion. In the seven war loans to date Germany has raised approximately $18,134,000,000.

Michaelis Said To Have Resigned His Post

New Chancellor Has Been Growing Very Unpopular Since Appointed

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24—A wireless press message received today from Amsterdam has asserted that Chancellor Michaelis "had placed his portfolio in the Kaiser's hands."

The wireless press message was not confirmed from any other source. The opposition to Chancellor Michaelis has been growing steadily during recent months in Germany. It started with the efforts of the majority Socialists to obtain some definite statement of Germany's war aims and grew more formidable when Michaelis evaded and ducked the issue. It reached a crisis when Michaelis and Admiral Von Capelle, Minister of Marines, broke the news of the German naval mutiny in what Socialists saw was a trick to gain Junkerite support.

DENIED THAT WILSON PLOT HAS BEEN FOUND BY SLEUTHS

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24—Information disclosed by government agents concerning isolated arrests at different points recently for the writing of threatening letters to President Wilson gave rise today to a widely-circulated story of a conspiracy against the President. It was officially stated that there was no warrant for such a report.

BY GRAPEVINE GROUNDLESS

Bob Mason says that Ira Toot told him that Hearst's International News Bureau is arranging with the fellow they had shot Kerensky several weeks ago to come to Washington and shoot the President. The date selected is April 1st instead of Thanksgiving.

TEUTON COUNTER ATTACKS FRUITLESS

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24—Violent German counter attacks against newly won British and French positions around Hougoult have been fruitless, Field Marshal Haig reported today. Vigorous counter blows were launched by the enemy at the point of juncture between the British and French. They were completely repulsed. "Since Monday" Haig concluded "seven counter attacks have been made and none of them materially gained for the enemy."

dea to the Italian Band for their cooperation in the matter of patriotic demonstrations.

Tonight Madera will stage a demonstration on a most elaborate scale. We do not have a program but we are informed that thousands are expected to hear the doctrine of Liberty for all men preached there tonight.

Tomorrow night there will be meetings at both Boardman and Chester Hill. Speakers from Clearfield will be present at both meetings.

Harrisburg, Oct. 24—Scarcely a community in the state—very likely none at all—is failing to take formal notice of Liberty Day today. After the governor last week followed the example of President Wilson and formally proclaimed today as Liberty Day, practically every mayor, burgess and similar official in the state accepted the governor's invitation to do the same.

A result is that the entire Keystone is swinging together today in a grand rally to drive the state's Liberty Bond quota "over the top." In many communities the afternoon is devoted to day with public meetings or other demonstrations, from place of customary activities.

Fred R. Bartles Gets Another Promotion

Popular Son-in-Law of Senator McQuown is Making Good

The many Clearfield friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Bartles will be pleased to learn that Mr. Bartles has received another fine promotion from the Northern Pacific Railroad company with which concern he has been connected for a number of years.

Mr. Bartles went to the northwest from Clearfield where he had been a supervisor on the Pennsylvania Division for several years. Since going west he has steadily risen in the railroad world and for the past five or six years has been a Division Superintendent, with headquarters at Staples, Minn.

Last week some changes were made in the officials of the Northern Pacific, due to the fact that a number of their men had been selected for service with the Emerson Commission in Russia and in consequence thereof Mr. Bartles was promoted to the position of Supt. of the Rocky Mountain Division and will hereafter be located at Missoula, Montana.

The change was effective at once and he has already assumed his new duties.

In speaking of the change the Staples News says: "While Mr. Bartles has made a large circle of friends since coming here, all of whom dislike very much to see him go away and take his excellent family from the city, the change is in the nature of a promotion that none would like to see Mr. Bartles pass up."

Mrs. Bartles is the daughter of Senator and Mrs. M. L. McQuown.

THIS IS LIBERTY DAY

Washington, Oct. 24—This is Liberty Day on which the government looks to the nation to swell enormously the Liberty Loan. With the one-half way mark reached in the campaign for the five billion dollars, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers are urgently preaching the doctrine of how to make Democracy safe through heavy purchase of Liberty Bonds.

The United Press idea of a Liberty Bond for a Christmas present was one of the most potential appeals with the endorsement of high government officials and ranking industrial and business men. Lord Reading and Lord G. Johnson of England, heads of the British financial mission in this country, today also gave approval to the Yuletide Liberty Bond. Lord Reading said through the United Press "a triumph over subscription of this Liberty Loan will be the best answer to the Kaiser's demand of how the United States can wage effective war. A Christmas gift of a Liberty Bond will be a help not only to the recipient but to the shell-racked soldiers in the trenches."

MORE PLOT RECORDS UNCOVERED

New York, Oct. 24—Count von Bernstorff's secret representative in America and all his records and papers completed part of a rich haul announced by Secret Service men today. The representative was Baron von Recklinghausen. His papers, it was hinted, gave a complete record of Germany's part in the Irish rebellion, plans for a new revolution and shows the source of the great fund of German propaganda money. The men are under close scrutiny.

In addition to Recklinghausen the American Secret Service men arrested "General" Liam Mellows, one of the leaders of the Irish rebellion in 1916 and his trip to the British authorities aimed in the taking the custody at Halifax, Nova Scotia. Dr. Patrick McCarton, another Sinn Fein leader. The arrest with full evidence taken in connection therewith drew the attention of the American Secret Service. "It undoubtedly prevents the formation of plans for another Dublin Sinn Fein rebellion next Easter."

Osceola People Buying Liberty Bonds Fine

Joined With Phillipsburg to Make Their Demonstration Success

Osceola Mills, Oct. 24—The drive for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in this district is being pushed with vigor. Members of the Presbyterian Sunday school held a Liberty Social in the church Friday evening at which a good sum was raised which will be invested in bonds. The rally in the Fireman's Arcade on Saturday evening was largely attended. A. H. Woodward and Mr. Betts of Clearfield addressed the audience. On Monday evening many of our Citizens, members of the Fire Company and I. O. O. F. together with two bands went to Phillipsburg to join in the parade and rally at that place. The Women Workers are making a thorough canvass and last evening reported having sold over $25,000.00 dollars worth in this district.

Rev. S. T. Lewis delivered an eloquent sermon on the Bond issue on Sabbath evening. The Knights of the Golden Eagle and I. O. O. F. lodges are among the organizations which have subscribed for bonds.

Mrs. C. W. Bickford, who was run down by some reckless automobile drivers while walking along the State road some days ago is recovering from her injuries.

Firemen Called To Fight Fire At Home

Osceola Fireman's Hall Damaged To The Extent of $1000 By Fire

The borough dials at Osceola Mills have to get their fire ladders more and better facilities or equipment for fire fighting or the old Fire Men will eat or burn them right up.

Last week a disastrous fire swept the Stine foundry at Osceola and entailed a loss aggregating $150,000. The firemen were handicapped by a poor water supply altho with Moshannon creek paralleling the plant a five or six thousand dollar pumping engine at the right time would have saved this huge destruction of property.

Not satisfied with getting away with his demolishing of the foundry "Old Burnusky" that he would take further liberties with the fire boys and this time add insult to injury by burning up their own property. You may not have known it before, but the Osceola firemen are a frugal lot and by careful business management built and paid for their own hall or building and out of it a charity of their hear supply a council room rent free to the borough council. You can imagine how mad it made Chief McCann, Arthur Baird, P. M. Murray and other guiding spirits in the fire fighting forces when fire broke out right in their own building at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The "wild cat" alarm was destroyed with the foundry and this also operated to the disadvantage of the firemen, but they jumped right in with the tools they had and saved the building from destruction after a strenuous battle, although the damage will amount to $1,000.

The loss is fortunately fully covered by insurance. Meanwhile the townspeople are beginning to waken up to the fact that five or ten thousand dollars spent for needed fire equipment now may save ten times its cost in its first fire service.

ENLARGING GARAGE

The Clearfield Central Garage company are enlarging the garage recently erected in the alley back of the Dining Hotel. When this company conceived the idea of building a garage in that location failure was first predicted for the project. The garage was not completed because it was proven to small and it was a common sight to see several cars waiting in line outside. The addition now being erected is almost as large as the original building, not even at that will be likely be large enough to accommodate their trade next spring.

P. S. COMMISSION BOARD MUST RULE ON NEW STATION

In No Other Way Will Clearfield Get A New Station Until After The War Has Terminated

N. Y. C. OFFICIALS HERE

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Oct. 23—The Public Service Commission has referred to its Bureau of Engineering the matter of alleged inadequate train service in Clearfield county by the New York Central railroad, and also the complaint that station facilities are inadequate.

Chairman Ainey, of the commission, recently took testimony in these two cases at a special hearing in Clearfield. No further action can be taken until the bureau reports back to the commission.

Superintendent F. E. McCormick, General Manager Frupp and General Superintendent Dinan, of the New York Central lines were in Clearfield yesterday and while here paid a visit to the Progress office.

Their attitude toward the matter of a new station and toward restoration of the River line service is such that nothing except a ruling of the Public Service Commission will bring about the results needed by this community. After recounting the many reasons for the change on the River line and repeating the claim that only the war holds up the construction of the new station they stated that the railroad did not have the revenue to build the station at this time.

BUYS A. L. COLE HOME

One of the handsomest, most desirable homes in Clearfield—the town of fine homes—changed hands yesterday when Dr. F. D. Leipold closed the deal whereby he became the owner of the A. L. Cole mansion on the West Side of the river in the Second Ward. The property was remodeled and generally overhauled and repaired by the late A. L. Cole, Esq., some two years ago and is in fine shape. It faces the river and occupies the entire half block from West Walnut street up to the H. A. Kennedy property line.

Possession will be given by Mrs. Cole and family the coming week and it is Dr. Leipold's intention to move into the same at once.

LIKE DAVY CROCKETT'S COON

Hon. F. G. Harris was out on the mountains gunning for pheasants yesterday and during his trip through the woods chased up two fine big buck deer. One was encountered along the Seaford road, while the other fellow dodged under the wire just back of Crystal Springs Camp. Mr. Harris is one of our most successful deer hunters and has been getting "his deer" each year for many years back. The appearance of the old bucks yesterday is thought to have been due to the fact that when they saw Harris approaching with his gun on his shoulder they figured the deer season was at hand and as he was sure to get one of them anyhow they would offer themselves as a sacrifice and have the agony over with.

SEVEN INCHES OF SNOW AT CLYMER

Reports were received from Clymer, Pa., this morning to the effect that that section of Indiana county was resting under a blanket of snow seven inches thick as the result of a furious snow storm which swept that section early today.

Word from the mountains north of town is that there are four or five inches of snow out there.

BOARD PASSED ON EXEMPT CLAIMS

No Shipment of Men To Camp Lee Until Further Notice Be Spite Previous Announcement

NO FINAL CALL FOR NEGROES

The local boys who are scheduled to go to Camp Lee with the next contingent of soldiers of liberty from District No. 1 will be given a few more days at home, instead of being called upon to leave for the trip on Friday as was published yesterday unofficially.

It seems the adjutant general's office was under the impression that Clearfield county was a territory supplying Camp Meade, as they stated to the local board, they could expect a call for their contingent of their quota between these dates.

Camp Meade is behind in its quota due to the unfinished condition of the camp when the first call for men was issued and the thirty per cent. spoken of will be taken from the sections supplying their quota.

The following letter explains the case:

October 23, 1917
Local Board for Division No. 1,
Clearfield, Pa.
Gentlemen:

Reference to our conversation this morning about our next shipment of white men. I told you, over the phone, that there was a telegram sent out for shipment of 30 per cent. or about November 2nd. At the time, I thought you shipped to Camp Meade, but I later found out, when I called upon the Telegraph Office to see why they had not sent you a message, that your name was not on the list I had given them. I looked further into the matter and found that you shipped to Camp Lee and that there has been no word sent out for men to be shipped to Camp Lee.

Yours very truly,
The Adjutant General,
By FRANK G. SWEENEY
Colonel

No call has been issued for any additional white men for Camp Lee and none is anticipated now for some little time yet.

The official order for entrainment of the colored soldiers from District No. 1 has not been issued yet and they will not be called now before the first of next week.

The local board expects to make the district board at Erie pass upon all pending claims appealed from their finding before orders are received for another contingent in order that the previous calls may all be cleaned up before the twenty-four men already certified from the last examination are called for service.

The local board at a short session this morning passed upon the following claims for exemption:

Disallowed
James A. Park, Winburne.
Harry Carlisle Frank, Clearfield.
Wm. Theo. Milliron, Curwensville.
Samuel T. McDowell, Hawk Run.
Allowed

Allen G. McCracken, Hyde, Pa., wife and five children.
Daniel Verdon Maines, Woodland, wife and two children.
Ralph Charles Shimmel, Wallacetown, wife and one child.

Ernest S. Jury, Bigler, wife and two children.
Russell E. Shaw, Clearfield, wife and three children.

Joseph David Conrad, Woodland, wife and three children.
Boyd Clifford Dickey, dependant mother and six brother and sisters.
John R. Vashinder, Curwensville, until discharged from reformation.

WE SIDE TRACKED THEM

The Lock Haven Express Tuesday evening said:—

"The Lock Haven High school team is on its way to the scholastic championship of Central Pennsylvania. The games deserve better patronage from the people of this city, as the team is making a name for this city on the foot ball field and is in every way worthy of our encouragement and support."

The "champions" ran into a switch at Clearfield Saturday. They were shunted into the discards to 6.

Fine Interest Shown At Meeting Held Last Night At The High School Auditorium

SUBSCRIPTIONS COME FASTER

Clearfielders are beginning to buy Liberty Bonds in a liberal manner. As has always been the case, when a real crisis faces the nation, when a real need is brought to the attention of our people, they dig down in their pockets and without reluctance give for whatever the need might be.

On the other hand it must be conceded that Clearfielders must be shown. They do not part with their money easily. In point of population, we have less "shark bait" per thousand than any other city. Our people are thrifty, crafty and canny. They can detect frauds and few are perpetrated upon the community.

Our people have become aroused. There is a determination to see this war through that was not in evidence two weeks ago. The work of the various committees charged with the duty of arousing the people has been hard but they have not worked in vain.

Everybody is reading Liberty Loan dope now. They are scanning the advertisements for more information. They seek to know how they can do their utmost.

In spite of the most inclement weather there was an excellent attendance at the Liberty Rally at the High School Auditorium last night. The seats were not all full but the atmosphere was full of patriotic zeal and fervor.

The address of Hon. Lincoln E. Eyre was listened to with the best of attention and several times he was interrupted with long and loud applause as he drove some strong points home with logical arguments. Preceding the address Mr. W. L. Betts by way of introduction read a newspaper clipping telling of the success of the Seventh War Loan and a telegram from the Emperor congratulating his aides on their masterful handling of the bond issue. A strong climax was reached when Mr. Betts finished reading the telegram, quickly tore it to pieces, stamped upon it and shot through his teeth the now famous phrase "a mere scrap of paper, we will do with it as the Kaiser did with the Belgium treaty."

Capt. A. H. Woodward and Alex. Patterson, Esq., followed Mr. Eyre. Mr. Patterson introduced some comedy into the meeting to relieve the tension by referring in light vein to Philadelphia and her politics. In conclusion he made some telling points alluding to America placing "point above the material things of life and professing that the spiritual side would be the winner. Capt. Woodward made one of his characteristic strong appeals to the majesty of the nation. Solicitors report today that they are taking larger subscriptions every day, and if they keep increasing at the present rate there will be no doubt of the success of the loan in Clearfield. Now this is just the point we want to make. We must keep them increasing every day until the end of the week.

There was joy in camp today when it became known that the Harrison-Walker bond subscription will be $200,000 for the Clearfield-Philipsburg district instead of $100,000 as published. This amount will be invested to the credit of this district over and above whatever amount is taken by their employees through that company.

The whole county is becoming aroused. Meetings are being held every day and evening in different parts of the county. Night before last a fine meeting was held at Glen Richey where W. O. Batchelor was the local chairman. Speakers were present from Clearfield, Glen Richey and four with subscriptions of $10,000 and more will be coming in before the campaign closes on Saturday night. The people of Glen Richey are to be congratulated on the good showings made by them. In addition to getting out the coal which Uncle Sam says so much needed they are putting the savings back into a loan for the Government.

Today noon there was a meeting at the Harrison-Walker works here with music by the Italian Band. The meeting was addressed by Rev. W. W. Hartman and other local workers. The people of Clearfield owe a good

Amsterdam, Oct. 24.—Germany is exalted over her success in the seventh war loan which totals three and a half billion dollars. Newspapers received here declared that the people's response to the government's appeal for money is an evidence of continued unity between the Kaiser and his people and the unswerving determination of all classes to bring the war to a victorious conclusion. In the seven war loans to date Germany has raised approximately $18,134,000,000.

Michaelis Said To Have Resigned His Post

New Chancellor Has Been Growing Very Unpopular Since Appointment

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24.—A wireless press message received today from Amsterdam has asserted that Chancellor Michaelis "had placed his portfolio in the Kaiser's hands."

The wireless press message was not confirmed from any other source. The opposition to Chancellor Michaelis has been growing steadily during recent months in Germany. It started with the efforts of the majority Socialists to obtain some definite statement of Germany's war aims and grew more formidable when Michaelis evaded and ducked the issue. It reached a crisis when Michaelis and Admiral Von Capelle, Minister of Marines, broke the news of the German naval mutiny in what Socialists saw was a trick to gain Junker support.

DENIED THAT WILSON PLOT HAS BEEN FOUND BY SLEUTHS

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Information disclosed by government agents concerning isolated arrests at different points recently for the writing of threatening letters to President Wilson gave rise today to a widely-circulated story of a conspiracy against the President. It was officially stated that there was no warrant for such a report.

BY GRAPEVINE GROUNDLESS

Bob Mason says that Ira Toot told him that Hearst's International News Bureau is arranging with the fellow they had shot Kerensky several weeks ago to come to Washington and shoot the President. The date selected is April 1st instead of Thanksgiving.

TEUTON COUNTER ATTACKS FRUITLESS

(By United Press)
London, Oct. 24.—Violent German counter attacks against newly won British and French positions around Boucasult have been fruitless, Field Marshal Haig reported today. Vigorous counter blows were launched by the enemy at the point of juncture between the British and French. They were completely repulsed. "Since Monday" Haig concluded "seven counter attacks have been made and none of them materially gained for the enemy."

idea to the Italian Band for their cooperation in the matter of patriotic demonstrations.

Tonight Madera will stage a demonstration on a most elaborate scale. We do not have a program but we are informed that thousands are expected to hear the doctrine of liberty for all men preached there tonight.

Tomorrow night there will be meetings at both Boardman and Chester Hill. Speakers from Clearfield will be present at both meetings.

Harrisburg, Oct. 24.—Scarcely a community in the state—very likely, none at all—is failing to take formal notice of Liberty Day today. After the governor last week followed the example of President Wilson and formally proclaimed today as Liberty Day, practically every mayor, burgess and similar official in the state accepted the governor's invitation to do the same.

A result is that the entire Keystone is swinging together today in one grand rally to drive the state's Liberty Bond quota "over the top." In many communities the afternoon is a virtual holiday, with public meetings or other demonstration, taking place of customary activities.

Fred R. Bartles Gets Another Promotion

Popular Son-in-Law of Senator McQuown is Making Good

The many Clearfield friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Bartles will be pleased to learn that Mr. Bartles has received another fine promotion from the Northern Pacific Railroad company with which concern he has been connected for a number of years.

Mr. Bartles went to the northwest from Clearfield where he had been a supervisor on the Pennsylvania Division for several years. Since going west he has steadily risen in the railroad world and for the past five or six years has been a Division Superintendent, with headquarters at Staples, Minn.

Last week some changes were made in the officials of the Northern Pacific, due to the fact that a number of their men had been selected for service with the Emerson Commission in Russia and in consequence thereof Mr. Bartles was promoted to the position of Supt. of the Rocky Mountain Division and will hereafter be located at Missoula, Montana.

The change was effective at once and he has already assumed his new duties.

In speaking of the change the Staples News says: "While Mr. Bartles has made a large circle of friends since coming here, all of whom dislike very much to see him go away and take his excellent family from the city, the change is in the nature of a promotion that none would like to see Mr. Bartles pass up."

Mrs. Bartles is the daughter of Senator and Mrs. M. L. McQuown.

THIS IS LIBERTY DAY

Washington, Oct. 24.—This is Liberty Day—on which the government looks to the nation to swell enormously the Liberty Loan. With the one-half way mark reached in the campaign for the five billion dollars, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers are urgently preaching the doctrine of how to make Democracy safe through heavy purchase of Liberty Bonds.

The United Press idea of a Liberty Bond for a Christmas present was one of the most potential appeals with the endorsement of high government officials and ranking industrial and business men. Lord Reading and Lord G. Johnson of England, heads of the British financial mission in this country, today also gave approval to the Yuletide Liberty Bond. Lord Reading said through the United Press "a triumph over subscription of this Liberty Loan will be the best answer to the Kaiser's demand of how the United States can wage effective war. A Christmas gift of a Liberty Bond will be a help not only to the recipient but to the shell-racked soldiers in the trenches."

MORE PLOT RECORDS UNCOVERED

New York, Oct. 24.—Count von Bernstorff's secret representative in America and all his records and papers completed part of a rich haul announced by Secret Service men today. The representative was Baron von Recklinghausen. His papers, it was hinted, gave a complete record of Germany's part in the Irish rebellion, plans for a new revolution and shows the source of the great fund of German propaganda money. The men are under close scrutiny.

In addition to Recklinghausen the American Secret Service men arrested the leaders of the Dublin rebellion in 1916 and by its "tip" to the British authorities aided in the taking and custody at Halifax, Nova Scotia, Dr. Patrick McCann, another Sinn Féin leader. The arrest with full evidence taken in connection therewith show that the American Secret Service undoubtedly prevents the foundation of plans for another Dublin Sinn Féin rebellion next Easter.

Osceola People Buying Liberty Bonds Fine

Joined With Philipsburg to Make Their Demonstration Success

Osceola Mills, Oct. 24.—The drive for the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in this district is being pushed with vigor. Members of the Presbyterian Sunday school held a Liberty Social in the church Friday evening at which a good sum was raised which will be invested in bonds. The rally in the Fireman's Arcade on Saturday evening was largely attended. A. H. Woodward and Mr. Betts of Clearfield addressed the audience. On Monday evening many of our citizens, members of the Fire Company and I. O. O. F. together with two bands went to Philipsburg to join in the parade and rally at that place. The Women Workers are making a thorough canvass and last evening reported having sold over $25,000.00 dollars worth in this district. Rev. S. T. Lewis delivered an eloquent sermon on the Bond issue on Sabbath evening. The Knights of the Golden Eagle and I. O. O. F. lodges are among the organizations which have subscribed for bonds.

Mrs. C. W. Bickford, who was run down by some reckless automobile drivers while walking along the State road some days ago is recovering from her injuries.

Firemen Called To Fight Fire At Home

Osceola Fireman's Hall Damaged To The Extent of $1000 By Fire

The borough dads at Osceola Mills have to get their fire ladders more and better facilities or equipment for fire fighting or the old Fire Flend will eat or burn them right up.

Last week a disastrous fire swept the Stine foundry at Osceola and entailed a loss aggregating $150,000. The firemen were handicapped by a poor water supply altho with Moshannon creek paralleling the plant a five or six thousand dollar pumping engine at the right time would have saved this huge destruction of property.

Not satisfied with getting away with his demolishing of the foundry "Old Burnhumpy" that he would take further liberties with the fire boys and this time add insult to injury by burning up their own property. You may not have known it before, but the Osceola firemen are a frugal lot and by careful business management built and paid for their own hall or building out of the charity of their hearth. They had a council room rent free to the borough council. You can imagine how mad it made Chief McCann, Arthur Barrd, P. M. Murray and other guiding spirits in the fire fighting forces when fire broke out right in their own building at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The "wild cat" alarm was destroyed with the foundry and this also operated to the disadvantage of the firemen, but they jumped right in with the tools they had and saved the building from destruction after a strenuous battle, although the damage will amount to $1,000.

The loss is fortunately fully covered by insurance. Meanwhile the townspeople are beginning to waken up to the fact that five or ten thousand dollars spent for needed fire equipment now may save ten times its cost in its first fire service.

ENLARGING GARAGE

The Clearfield Central Garage company are enlarging the garage recently erected in the alley back of the Danahy Hotel. When this company conceived the idea of building a garage in that location failure was freely predicted for the project. The garage was not completed before it was proven to small and it was a common sight to see several cars waiting in line outside. The addition now being erected is almost as large as the original building, but even at that will not likely be large enough to accommodate their trade next spring.

Mrs. Partridge and Miss McMurray read exceptionally well, interpreting clearly the meaning of every line of this wonderful bard.

P. S. COMMISSION MUST RULE ON NEW STATION

In No Other Way Will Clearfield Get A New Station Until After The War Has Terminated

N. Y. C. OFFICIALS HERE

(By United Press)
Harrisburg, Oct. 23.—The Public Service Commission has referred to its Bureau of Engineering the matter of alleged inadequate train service in Clearfield county by the New York Central railroad, and also the complaint that station facilities are inadequate.

Chairman Ainey, of the commission, recently took testimony in these two cases at a special hearing in Clearfield. No further action can be taken until the bureau reports back to the commission.

Superintendent F. E. McCormick, General Manager Frupp and General Superintendent Dinan, of the New York Central lines were in Clearfield yesterday and while here paid a visit to the Progress office.

Their attitude toward the matter of a new station and toward restoration of the River line service is such that nothing except a ruling of the Public Service Commission will bring about the results needed by this community. After recounting the many reasons for the change on the River line and repeating the claim that only the war holds up the construction of the new station they stated that the railroad did not have the revenue to build the station at this time.

The Progress is fully aware of the fact that it is unfortunate that the delinquency of the New York Central with regard to station facilities makes it necessary to force the issue under present conditions but in as much as a necessity exists it must be taken care of regardless of war conditions. We have always inclined to the view that Clearfield had the new station coming to it years ago and if the New York Central had given the town the consideration it deserved the station would today have been built and Clearfield would have had greater pride in the vast railroad system which enters her city limits.

BUYS A. L. COLE HOME

One of the handsomest, most desirable homes in Clearfield—the town of fine homes—changed hands yesterday when Dr. F. D. Leipold closed the deal whereby he became the owner of the A. L. Cole mansion on the West Side of the river in the Second Ward.

The property was remodeled and generally overhauled and repaired by the late A. L. Cole, Esq., some two years ago and is in fine shape. It faces the river and occupies the entire half block from West Walnut street up to the H. A. Kennedy property line.

Possession will be given by Mrs. Cole and family the coming week and it is Dr. Leipold's intention to move into the same at once.

LIKE DAVY CROCKETT'S COON

Hon. F. G. Harris was out on the mountains gunning for pheasants yesterday and during his trip through the woods chased up two fine big buck deer. One was encountered along the Schofield road, while the other fellow dodged under the wire just back of Crystal Springs Camp. Mr. Harris is one of our most successful deer hunters and has been getting "his deer" each year for many years back. The appearance of the old bucks yesterday is thought to have been due to the fact that when they saw Harris approaching with his gun on his shoulder they figured the deer season was at hand and as he was sure to get one of them anyhow they would offer themselves as a sacrifice and have the agony over with.

SEVEN INCHES OF SNOW AT CLYMER

Reports were received from Clymer, Pa. this morning to the effect that that section of Indiana county was resting under a blanket of snow seven inches thick as the result of a furious snow storm which swept that section early today.

Word from the mountains north of town is that there are four or five inches of snow out there.

BOARD PASSES ON EXEMPT CLAIMS TO CAMP LEE

NO FINAL CALL FOR NEGROES

The local boys who are scheduled to go to Camp Lee with the next contingent of soldiers of liberty from District No. 1 will be given a few more days at home, instead of being called upon to leave for the training camp some time between next Tuesday and Friday as was published yesterday unofficially.

It seems the adjutant general's office was under the impression that Clearfield county was in the territory supplying Camp Meade, when they stated to the local board that they could expect a call for thirty per cent. of their quota between those dates.

Camp Meade is behind in its quota due to the unfinished condition of the camp when the first call for men was issued and the thirty per cent. spoken of will be taken from the sections supplying their quota.

The following letter explains the case:

October 23, 1917
Local Board for Division No. 1,
Clearfield, Pa.

Gentlemen:
Reference to our conversation this morning about our next shipment of white men. I told you, over the phone, that there was a telegram out for shipment of 30 per cent. on or about November 2nd. At the time, I thought you shipped to Camp Meade, but I later found out, when I called up the Telegraph Office to see why they had not sent you a message, that your name was not on the list I had given them. I looked further into the matter and found that you shipped to Camp Lee and that has been no word sent out for men to be shipped to Camp Lee.

Yours very truly,
The Adjutant General,
By FRANK G. SWEENEY
Colonel

No call has been issued for any additional white men for Camp Lee and none is anticipated now for some little time yet.

The official order for entrainment of the colored soldiers from District No. 1 has not been issued yet and they will not be called now before the first of next week.

The local board expects to make the district board at Erie pass upon all pending claims appealed from their finding before orders are rectified for another contingent in order that the previous calls may all be cleaned up before the twenty-four men already certified from the last examination are called for service.

The local board at a short session this morning passed upon the following claims for exemption:

Disallowed
James A. Park, Winburne.
Harry Carlisle Frank, Clearfield.
Wm. Theo. Milliron, Curwensville.
Samuel T. McDowell, Hawk Run.
Allowed

Allen Q. McCracken, Hyde, Pa., wife and five children.

Daniel Verdon Maines, Woodland, wife and two children.

Ralph Charles Shimmel, Wallacetown, wife and one child.

Ernest S. Jury, Bigler, wife and two children.

Russell E. Shaw, Clearfield, wife and three children.

Joseph David Conrad, Woodland, wife and three children.

Boyd Clifford Dickey, dependent mother and six brother and sisters.

John R. Vashinder, Curwensville, until discharged from reformatory.

WE SIDE TRACKED THEM
The Lock Haven Express Tuesday evening said:

"The Lock Haven High school team is on its way to the scholastic championship of Central Pennsylvania. The games deserve better patronage from the people of this city, as the team is making a name for this city on the foot ball field and is in every way worthy of our encouragement and support."

The "champions" ran into a switch at Clearfield Saturday. They were shunted into the discards to 6.

EDITORIAL*"LIBERTY DAY"

This is Liberty Day. There isn't any word in the language so distinctively American in its meaning to us or so inspiring to Americans as such. The United States is a Christian nation and its liberty is based on the principle of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. We recognize every man's right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

When this war began we were neutral. If the nations across the sea wanted to cut each others' throats, it was none of our funeral. But this didn't last long. The cry of bleeding Belgium came to us. The starving Armenians wailed and we heard them. The Serbians were homeless and distressed and we helped them, perhaps not so generously as we might have done, but still more so than any other nation. Our statesmen realized sooner than the mass of the people that the war was one of crude brute force against all the principles of individual and national freedom; that the success of the Teutons would mean the enslavement of the human race. No objection was made to the shipments of munitions to the Entente. Had embargo not been put on these supplies, had money been impossible to obtain in this country, the war would have been over ere this and the world dominion dream of the kaiser been far on its way toward fulfillment.

But the kaiser showed his cloven foot on this side the Atlantic just a little too soon. When he struck at the freedom of the seas; when his under sea monsters made it necessary for Americans to stay at home or take their lives in their hands, a liberty loving people couldn't keep hands off any longer. So our men are gone and our dollars are rapidly making a difference in conditions in the war zone. The first Liberty Loan is a matter of history and the second one will be. The first one went slowly until the wind up; then subscriptions came in with so great a rush that it was days before the count could be completed.

It is hoped that the wind up of the second campaign will be even greater. Government officials are admittedly worried at the slowness of the returns. Some of the friends of the loan have been optimistic of final subscriptions. Some of its enemies are taking advantage of this to discourage hard work as unnecessary. But Liberty Day is badly needed. There cannot be too much enthusiasm, too much cheering for Old Glory, too many parades or patriotic speech making. The echo of the ringing of the Liberty Bell should be heard in every city, town and village in the land. The farmer, whom the government has assured fair prices for their crops, should lead their savings in their country's hour of need. Everybody who has the price of a Liberty Bond now or who can raise it on the banker's plan of $5 a month should celebrate Liberty Day by obtaining the right to wear one of the buttons announcing that the wearer owns a Liberty Bond. We have our liberty. Let's help our government to preserve it and let's be unselfish enough to help share it with the whole world.

- Are you, due to the increased values of almost everything you own, also under-insured?
- Do you realize that to rebuild your home or your buildings today costs more than in 1914?
- Do you know that your household furnishings would cost more today?
- Do you know your rugs, carpets and textiles have increased in value many times what you paid for them?

- That your fixtures, office furniture, etc., have advanced?

Over Seven Fire Alarms Each Month!!

These figures amaze you. They should ALARM you. You have a false sense of security. You don't realize how near to you the danger of fire loss really is.

SUGGESTION: GET OUT YOUR FIRE INSURANCE POLICIES TODAY—AND WRITE OR TELEPHONE YOUR INSURANCE AGENTS FOR INFORMATION THAT WILL SURELY BENEFIT YOU.

If your fire insurance covers only the value of what you own based on costs one, two or three years ago, you are dangerously under-insured.

Higher values, greater replacement costs—have devalued the protection your policy gives.

Insure your possessions for what they are worth today. Or you may be paid but fraction of replacement costs.

Prices have risen while almost everything costs less today. Insurance rates in this section have accordingly been reduced.

Whether you are a small or large business, or have a big or small business, you are on an equal risk whether you insure or not.

Pay the minimum of rates to avoid the possibility of a disaster paying more than he should. Write to the Board of Underwriters.

The Mutual's expert inspection system—their promptness of action, their fire prevention and fire fighting precautions—their co-operation with public fire officials—their support of all safe building construction measures—are decreasing the fires. The fewer the fires the lower the rates.

At the very low cost for carrying enough fire insurance today—insurance based on present valuations—you can't afford to be "penny-wise, pound foolish." You can't afford to risk loss through under-insurance.

THERE'S NO EXCUSE FOR "I FORGOT TO INSURE THESE FOR THEIR PRESENT VALUE."

NEWS FROM OUR BOYS AT CAMP LEE

Smokes, Candy and Chewing Gum Will Satisfy Appetite.

A. W. Leonardson Returning From A Visit To The Camp Gives First Hand Information About It.

WANT LETTERS FROM FRIENDS HERE

Mr. A. W. Leonardson returned last night from a trip to Camp Lee, Va., after spending a day with his brother Louis. Mr. Leonardson's reception by the Kane contingent at Camp Lee was of the warmest kind as was the greeting from the Clearfield boys with whom he came in contact.

In speaking of his visit Mr. Leonardson said "When the boys from Kane saw me I thought they would carry me into the barracks on their shoulders. They were so glad to see 'someone from home' that their glances were boundless. Having more or less homesickness the boys seemed contented with their lot as soldiers. The arrangements of the camp are ideal. Arranged in semi-circular form the buildings form a gigantic horseshoe covering about six miles square. The barracks proper, or sleeping and lounging rooms, are any, well lighted and have hot and cold water with shower baths, etc.

"Of special note are the various provisions for the sanitation of the camp and the thirty or forty thousand men now housed there are in just as good condition from a sanitary point of view, as they would be at home. The mess or restaurants are entirely separate from the kitchen and the food is served in an admirable way.

"While the boys get enough to eat they do not get the little things to which they have been accustomed and that seems to be their crying want at this time.

"In company with my brother I visited the section of the camp where the Clearfield boys are stationed and again I was given a warm reception. Some of the boys were on duty but saw 'Moe' Robinson, Ray Williamson, 'Clate' Shaw, Glasgow Trovelli, Peck Shade, Alva Brothers, Wm. Beck, 'Tony' Aveni, Luther Fisher, William Schullen and Ray Toot. These boys are all, or nearly all, connected with the truck companies of the 55th Ammunition Train and were all very anxious to hear first hand the news of the old town.

"Some of the boys were told, when they left, that they should not take anything with them other than a few toilet articles, but since they have been there they send these 'wells' home to those who are coming. 'Bin' another change of underwear, for some of us were two weeks before we got a change. Another thing that the boys were asking for was that the folks at home send them some wristlets or 'pulse warmers'. These must be knitted from the olive drab wool as the army officials will not allow any other color to be used while in camp. One fellow was the possessor of a fine gray sweater but was not allowed to wear it even when not on duty.

"I watched the men line up for the mail and right here let me say to your readers just the thing that they have heard from all the camps, that the boys seem to live from mail to mail.

They would go up to the window with all confidence but when nothing was forthcoming, they would leave with drooping shoulders and the fellow who was fortunate enough to get some mail was as tickled as the proverbial dog with two tails. Letters, not just post cards, are the thing to read to your friends down there. Tell them the little things about the fellows that they ran around with and about your little family doings about the girls, about your little brother or sister that is in school, everything that your boy would have heard about if he had been right here at home.

"Above all tell your readers to write the boys letters. The joy at the receiving end will more than compensate them for the slight inconvenience to which they may be put. A letter addressed to 2nd Truck Co., 55th Ammunition Train, Camp Lee, Va., will reach any of the boys other than those of whom you may have different knowledge.

Another thing the boys look for is the home papers. When one of them gets a copy of the papers from here, he reads until you'd think the printer would be pried loose from the pages and then come, some of the biggest things the boys seem to want after the letters from home. Candy, cigars, cigarettes and chewing gum head the list, and I told the boys that we would see what could be done.

"On my way home I formulated a plan, whereby the boys would be placed in possession of the things that they want while they are fighting for us, or getting ready to, down there, and it is this:

"This store will be made the headquarters for the reception of either money or the things mentioned in the foregoing paragraph and I will head the list with a $10.00 subscription to start the thing going. It is such a little thing to do for these home boys down there that the fund should go to a considerable amount in a very short time.

"Tell your readers that the boys will be looking for something substantial from them even though the amount of each individual contribution may be small, the aggregate will be large enough to give every Clearfield boy in Camp Lee a goodly portion of the things he desires and he will know that he is not forgotten by the home folks."

Republic Truck Company To Build 40,000 Trucks During This Year

Firm of Few Years Life Has Grown Into a National Institution of Big Resources

Special to The Progress—Alma, Oct. 24.—The Republic Truck Company, which has built its reputation on the production of trucks during the past few years, is now producing 40,000 trucks during this year.

Forty thousand trucks is a record for a company of few years' standing. The company's production for the year 1916 was 10,000 trucks. In 1917 the company's production was 40,000 trucks. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

While the Republic Truck Company is now producing 40,000 trucks during this year, it is also producing 10,000 trucks during the year 1918. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

When the truck industry was in its infancy, the Republic Truck Company was one of the first to produce trucks. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

From the inception of the company, the Republic Truck Company has been producing trucks. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

While engaged with the production of trucks, the Republic Truck Company has also been producing other vehicles. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

Ruggles' Dream of Future While engaged with the production of trucks, the Republic Truck Company has also been producing other vehicles. This is a record for a company of few years' standing.

to local and national question. In 1903 when President Ruggles was doing many rough stunts around the shop himself, the stockholders were elated because the plant had built 51 trucks, and the sales department had sold them, too. The performance of the first year's output created a Republic market. The year of 1916 closed with a record of 376 trucks manufactured and sold.

The following year, 1915, was turned out and on 1916 the output was 600. The values of the 1916 output were valued at 60 million dollars. This was a record for the business.

But in January 1, 1917, to July 1, of the same year the production record shows 9,677 trucks of all types, a record 100 better than the 1916 record.

The plan to produce 40,000 Republic trucks in 1918 is necessitating many additions and new equipment to the plant and financial basis and having a supply of materials assured, the company is in a different position to meet this some of its less fortunate competitors.

In order to insure a regular supply and a product of quality the Republic company bought, December 1, 1916 the Johnson Axle company, Cleveland, Ohio. This concern is now working to 400 men. The Republic company has not endeavored to take up or work a hardship on any competitor, however in the purchase of the axle company bought December 1, 1916 the market for anybody's use.

Geo. F. Kittelberger Joins Progress to Write Camp News

Will Keep in Touch With Clearfield County Boys and Write Letters Regularly For The Progress

SOLDIERS ARE ENJOYING HUNTER'S PAGE

The men of Clearfield county, who have come to Camp Lee, may consider themselves lucky in that the camp has been built on one of the most famous battle fields of the Civil War. Several very decisive engagements took place here. Within a mile of headquarters, westward, stood Fort Steadman. In the last grand offensive movement of Lee's army of Northern Virginia, Fort Steadman with adjacent works was captured at 4:30 a. m., March 25, 1865, by a well selected body of confederates under the command of General John B. Gordon. In walling in this section the old entrenchments are easily distinguished and it was here where 604 brave men of the First Heavy Artillery of Maine, fell while attacking the Virginians in these trenches, on the 18th of June, 1864. A short distance farther is a tablet marking the entrance to the mines which were in charge of the 48th Regiment of Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Infantry. A visible depression in the earth shows the direction the mine was run and by following this depression a short distance you are brought to the crater which was excavated by the 48th Burnside 9th corps on July 30th, 1864. Daily thousands of the members of this massive United States National Army are walking on the ground which on the 30th of July 1864 was the advance position of the 2nd Penna. Veteran Heavy Artillery. The 2nd Artillery went into action on this date with 780 men. At roll call after the battle only 286 men answered. Four hundred and ninety-four, including 8 officers had been killed or wounded. In walking over this battle field these new soldiers of America meet veterans of the Civil war and the stories they tell bring to the rookies the position they are in and they begin to realize that they too are here that they may make the same sacrifice that their grandfather's made before them.

One hour out of every day of every soldier's life is spent in fatigue duty. Sections, composed of 16 men, are detailed to the different company buildings and the grounds surrounding them where they clean up in general. After this policing is done it is even impossible to find a burned match on the ground. Sanitation is a big feature in an army camp and is carried through from the man himself to the kitchens. Many barracks have been beautified by the planking of jack pines and the building of gravel walks.

The hunters page in The Progress is read not only by the men from the West Branch country but is read with interest by men from other sections of Pennsylvania and also by the West Virginians and Virginians. Rabbits seem to be plentiful here. When the underbrush is burned to clear for drill grounds there is always a lot of excitement. At times at least fifty men gather along a road toward which a fire is burning. As soon as Mr. Rabbit comes out on the road the men give an imitation of a band of Apaches and all start to chase. Some of the rabbits give a long chase but the usual result is rabbit soup.

No rattlesnakes down here but they have a good substitute the copperhead. Several Clearfield county men have reported killing some nice specimens.

John Opelesky, of Smoke Run, Pa. corner LeMar Hoak, of Osceola Mills, Pa. corner George Riley, of Ramay, Pa. corner James Battle, of DuBois, Pa., claim net.

Opelesky, Hoak, and Riley came to camp Lee on the 19th of September, while Battle arrived on the 8th. Recently, while digging a ditch to lay a water line, workmen dug up the bones of what is supposed to have been a soldier killed in the Civil War. The supposition is that he was a Northern man as a belt buckle with U. S. on it was found. There was also a cannon ball, a bomb and a three inch shell. The bones were reburied in a local cemetery. The spot where the discovery was made is in a field adjacent to the parade grounds used by several companies of Clearfield county men.

The soldier has two afternoons a week beside all day Sunday to himself and many of the officers in camp being interested in athletics some very exciting contests are being staged on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. Recently picked teams from the 1st and 2nd Cavalry companies of the 306th Ammunition train battled for supremacy in soccer. The 1st Co. is made up principally of Clearfield county men while the 2nd Co. is from Western Pennsylvania. After playing two extra periods without either side scoring the game was called. The 306th Ammunition train have several developed athletes as was shown when shot putts, hurdles and hundred yard men along with a relay team were chosen to represent the regiment at a track meet held in Petersburg last Saturday. Richard Hess, of Clearfield, ran in the 220.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — purple — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SAXON "SIX"

The Only Car That Sells for Less
Than $1000 Equipped With all the Necessary Features of a GOOD Car.

Look them all over then you'll come back to the Saxon "Six". From the tip of the radiator to the farthest end of the hood it's an "own-design" car. Every feature of its make-up is a unit you know all about as you have read about them in the stories of much higher priced cars.

The Continental motor, the Timken axles, the Timken bearings the Stromberg carburetor, the Remy ignition, the Fedders radiator, the Exide storage battery, the Wagner starter and lighting system, each does its part in making this the biggest little car on the market.

It proves that for $250 or $300 more you cannot buy a better car than the Saxon "Six." So why pay more than the Saxon "Six" price?

Saxon "Six" $935
Saxon "Six" Chummy Roadster $935
Saxon "Four" Roadster $895
(Including electrical equipment)
